University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA)

- Visiting Scholar, Center for Near Eastern Studies 2017-2018

Syracuse University (SU)

- Member of the University Leadership Team 1992- 2019
- Member of the Academic Strategic Plan Steering Committee 2015-2017
- Provost Office, Inaugural Provost's Faculty Fellow for Internationalization 2014-2015
 - As the first person to hold this position, I was tasked with helping the university's leadership articulate and implement an internationalization vision. I also met with representatives of various international universities (e.g. China, Cyprus, Greece), convened the meetings of SU's "China Team," and met with my counterparts at other universities (e.g., Cornell University).
- Co-Chair, Internationalization Council 2016-2017
 - University-wide council that reported to the Provost and was charged with furthering comprehensive internationalization by providing advice, information, feedback, and support on key topics and initiatives, such as pedagogy and curriculum, study abroad, international student recruitment and support and integration, and regional studies programs.

- Co-Chair, Academic Strategic Plan Working Group on Enhancing Internationalization 2014-2016
 - Internationalization was one of the six principles of SU's new academic strategic plan. I was deeply engaged in the development and implementation of this goal in the above roles which increased the international footprint of the university.
 - I was one of two lead drafters of SU's strategic plan to strengthen internationalization.
- Syracuse University Representative to American Council on Education (ACE) Internationalization Laboratory 2015-2017
 - Took an in-depth look at SU's numerous international activities including study abroad, attracting international students, examining university partnerships, dual degree programs, curriculum internationalization, and faculty development.
- Syracuse University Representative to ACE's Institute for Leading Internationalization 2015
 - Learned how to apply a comprehensive, versatile model of internationalization to the unique challenges and opportunities facing universities, and how to raise the visibility and importance of international goals by integrating them into the institution's overall mission.
- Professor of Political Science, Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs 2014-2019
 - Department Chair 2014-2017
 - Leadership responsibility for 33 full-time faculty, 3 full-time staff, and 12 adjunct faculty (second largest department at the Maxwell School)
 - Program oversight for 640 undergraduates and 65 Ph.D. students in a unit that produced 12,800 undergraduate credit hours and 1,000 graduate credit hours annually
 - Budgeting and strategic fiscal planning ($2 million AY school-held salary budget, and $100,000 annual operating budget)
 - Launched a number of key initiatives including starting PSC's Middle States Assessment review efforts (including an ideational exercise and SWOT analysis), adopting new graduate and undergraduate assessment plans, creating more 200-level and 400-level courses, codifying departmental policies, updating department's Faculty Procedures and Evaluation Policy, making departmental finances more transparent, analyzing discrepancies in salaries of male and female faculty colleagues, cleaning up (deactivating, regularizing, and approving for credit) list of course offerings, and updating the department's web page
 - Administered the hiring of five new assistant professors (three women) and two postdocs, as well as the promotion & tenure process of five faculty members
 - Expanded total undergraduate credit hours taught by 6% during my term as chair
- Associate Professor of Political Science 1998-2014
 - Director of Graduate Studies for the Department of Political Science 2001-2004
 - Program oversight for over 50-65 Ph.D. and M.A. candidates each year
 - Chaired an admission committee reviewing 120-180 applications each year
 - Oversaw the addition of ten new TA slots allocated to PSC by the Maxwell Dean to accommodate record number of undergraduate majors
 - Revised policy regarding the use of Research Assistants positions
 - Assigned six graduate students to serve as Research Assistants each year
 - Redesigned the methods requirement for our PhD students
 - Revised and codified policies regarding the Oral Qualifying Examinations and oversaw the exam process

- Provided reading lists for all PSC doctoral subfields to help students prepare for Oral Qualifying Examinations
 - Instituted the process of having the Graduate Studies Committee approve each student's "Program of Study" before clearing them to take the Oral Qualifying Examination
 - Started to bundle fellowships with summer research grants to attract better students
 - Supervised the awarding of funding and departmental prizes
 - Regularized a good number of graduate course offerings
- Assistant Professor of Political Science 1992-1998
 - Affiliated Faculty, Institute for National Security and Counterterrorism 2015-2019
 - Founding Co-Director, Religion, Media & International Affairs Program 2006-2009
 - This three-year program, funded by the Henry Luce Foundation, created 10 new or revamped courses and 12 case studies to illustrate the vital role played by religion and religious beliefs in international affairs
 - Handled all budget/financial issues, hired all graduate assistants and case writers, edited and commented on all 12 case studies, wrote annual reports
 - Organized an international conference entitled Old and New Media, and the Changing Faces of Islam which brought ten leading journalists and scholars to SU (2009)
 - As director, I was invited to be a member of the Social Science Research Council's (SSRC) Program on Religion & International Affairs (2007-10)
 - Joined a leading group of scholars assembled by SSRC to draft the book Rethinking Religion and World Affairs (Oxford University Press, 2012).
- Founding Director, Middle Eastern Studies Program (MESP) 2003-2014
 - Founded and led this interdisciplinary program for 11 years. Under my leadership, MESP grew to include 25 faculty members and became one of the most popular regional studies concentrations at SU.
 - Led the entire program and curriculum development process for MESP to offer a Major, Minor, and a Certificate of Advanced Study for Graduate Students (including approval by the New York State Department of Education)
 - Helped with the recruitment of ten new faculty members across the university
 - Helped MESP faculty to regularize 35 courses, and increased the number of our typical semester course offering from less than 12 in 2003 to 25 in 2013
 - Organized conferences, lectures, language tables, film screening and published a total of 11 newsletters (2007-13)
 - Arranged for eight Middle Eastern visiting scholars to come to SU and spend anywhere between 4 to 24 months on campus
 - Traveled to Bahrain, Lebanon, Kuwait, Turkey, and UAE to meet with donors and alumni, establish exchange relationships, and find internship placements
 - Engaged in extensive community outreach

Executive Leadership Training

American Council on Education Fellow

2017-2018

Host Institution: California State University, Northridge (CSUN)

- Competitively selected by ACE for this premier preparation program for aspiring executive leaders committed to shaping the future of higher education. Engaged in workshops, orientation, campus visits (fifteen total), and annual ACE conference. At CSUN, I observed and participated in the meetings of the President's Extended Cabinet, the Provost's Staff, Senate, University Foundation, and the Board of Trustees of the California State University System. Worked with President Dianne F. Harrison and Provost Yi Li on three student success projects.

- Mapped the three-year (2017-20) plans of all CSUN Colleges for CSUN Shines for the Future Planning Priorities, which defined the university's eight major goals
- Calculated targets for raising the graduation rates and reducing the achievement gap of full-time freshman and full-time transfers in each college as part of efforts to reach the goals of Graduation Initiative 2025
- Created an inventory of the interventions and measurements adopted by each college in the following seven broad areas: Advisement; Curriculum, Enrollment & Scheduling; Faculty Support & Engagement; Retention, Equity Gap & Graduation; Staff Support & Engagement; Student Engagement & Belonging; and Student Mentoring, Tutoring and Online Education

PUBLICATIONS

Books:

1. Post-revolutionary Iran: A Political Handbook (Syracuse University Press, 2018)
 - This 853-page political encyclopedia provides the most comprehensive collection of data on political life in post-revolutionary Iran, including biographical sketches of more than 2,300 political personalities. It also provides an extensive chronology, coverage of 36 national elections, information on more than 400 legal and outlawed political organizations, and family ties among the elite.
 - This book was the subject of a book review forum with five contributions in Iranian Studies 53, nos. 3-4 (May-August 2020), pp. 675-684.
 - Also reviewed in Choice (February 2019), Middle East Quarterly (Spring 2019), Arab Weekly (June 2018), and Middle East Librarians Association (April 2019).
2. (ed.), Mirror for the Muslim Prince: Islam and Theory of Statecraft (Syracuse University Press, 2013; paperback edition 2017)
 - For this edited volume, I assembled a group of distinguished scholars to reinterpret concepts and canons of Islamic thinking in Arab, Persian, South Asian, and Turkish traditions. The book maintains that there is no unitary "Islamic" position on important issues of statecraft and governance. My own contribution included a single-authored introduction, and an original co-written chapter, "On Sa'di's Treatise on Advice to the Kings."
 - Turkish edition (Siyasetname: İslami Bir Devlet İdaresi Teorisi), translated by Salim Korkmaz (Istanbul: al-Baraka, 2021).

 - This book encompasses a collection of 18 of my Persian-language essays that explore Iran's intellectual history in the interwar period (1919-1939) and the post-1979 era.
 - Reviewed in Iranian Studies
4. Iranian Intellectuals and the West: Tormented Triumph of Nativism (Syracuse University Press, 1996)
 - This book examined the works of ten thinkers seminal in defining modern Iranian identity.
 - Reviewed in American Political Science Review, Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, Contemporary Sociology, Foreign Affairs, International History Review, International Journal of Middle East Studies, International Migration Review, Iranian Studies, Islamic Studies, Middle East Journal, Middle East Studies Association Bulletin, Middle Eastern Studies, Midwest Book Review
