This has allowed the involvement of Virginia Tech into the Consortium of Jean Monnet Chairs of the Americas thereby enhancing the institution's international visibility.
- Recognized as a National Security Scholar by the Secretary of the U.S. Air Force, for my contribution to the discussions pertaining to the future role of the U.S. Air Force in the new strategic environment and particularly in reference to outer space activities.
- Received the D.D. Eisenhower Award from the U.S. Army War College for my contribution to the discussion regarding the involvement (planning and training) of the U.S. Army in post-conflict operations.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN INSTITUTIONAL BUILDING

- Establishing and directing the Center for European Union, Transatlantic & Trans-European Space Studies (CEUTTSS), which is the first ever Jean Monnet Center of Excellence operating in the Commonwealth of Virginia and one of the eleven Jean Monnet Centers of Excellence currently in operation in the United States (University of Miami, University of Florida, University of California-Berkeley, University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill, University of Pittsburgh, University of Wisconsin-Madison, University of Illinois-Urbana, University of Colorado-Boulder, Georgia Tech, and American University).
- Integrating Virginia Tech into the Jean Monnet in the United States University Network (JMintheUS), which includes the institutions mentioned above, as well as universities that have had Jean Monnet Chairs and/or Jean Monnet Centers of Excellence, such as Harvard, Princeton, Yale, Georgetown, George Washington University, New York University, University of Denver, and Columbia University. This has enhanced the national and international reputation of Virginia Tech and has increased its international visibility.
- Establishing and directing the Diplomacy Lab; an experiential program that runs in collaboration with the Department of State (DoS) and which gives the opportunity to VT students to involve in DoS projects involving research, analysis and reporting. It is worth noting that VT is the most active participant in the Diplomacy Lab network nationwide and since 2015 the program has involved approximately 800 students.
- Developing and directing the largest International Studies Program in the Commonwealth of Virginia (approximately 700 majors) and one of the largest International Studies Program nationwide. The International Studies Program now includes five (5) majors which represent competitive market niches.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT

- Organized and led the majorization of the International Studies Program by creating and putting through university governance thirty-two (32) new undergraduate courses. The latter were to support the new majors in International Relations, International Public Policy, and National Security & Foreign Affairs.
- Created the new major in EUropean & Transatlantic Studies by creating and putting through university governance eighteen (18) new undergraduate courses.
- Created the experiential learning minors in European Engagement and Global Engagement as well as the minors in European Studies, Transatlantic Studies, International Relations, International Public Policy, and National Security & Foreign Affairs.
- Created the Graduate Certificate in European Politics & Transatlantic Relations (currently in university governance) supported by nine (9) new graduate courses that were created and were out through university governance.
- Established the Washington Semester in Global Engagement and the Washington Semester in European Engagement experiential learning programs in collaboration with the Government & International Affairs (GIA) program of the School of Public & International Affairs (SPIA). These programs involve students in Diplomacy Lab projects and internships in various institutions in Washington DC (i.e. embassies, Think Tanks, Capitol Hill, etc.).

ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION

- Established and co-led the European Affairs in Global Context study abroad program that is based at the Steger Center for International Scholarship located in Riva San Vitale, Canton of Ticino, Switzerland. This program includes, among other things, student visits to international organizations in Geneva (UN, WTO, etc.), Lausanne (IOC), Vienna (UN, OSCE, and OPEC), and Brussels (EU institutions and NATO); visits to various European countries (i.e. Greece and Italy) and conflict zones (i.e. Cyprus and Northern Ireland).
- Co-organized the European Perspectives on Integrated Security study abroad program that is to take place at the Steger Center for International Scholarship located in Riva San Vitale, Canton of Ticino, Switzerland. This program includes student visits to Brussels (EU institutions and NATO), Vienna (UN and OSCE) and various conflict zones (i.e. Bosnia & Herzegovina, Ukraine, and Georgia)
