

WHICH CAMPUS IS RIGHT FOR YOU?

Each campus offers unique advantages for students based on their geographic location. Read below and determine which campus might be the best fit for you.

BLACKSBURG

- Increased opportunities for assistantships outside UAP
- Easy access to engagement opportunities throughout the school, college, and university
- Large campus with access to extensive, university-provided resources and activities such as health care, career services, job fairs, and traditional Hokie events
- Facilitation of interdisciplinary coursework and faculty interactions across the school, college, and university community.
- High level of interaction among students
- Easy access to environmental and recreational amenities throughout the New River and Roanoke Valleys
- Proximity to planning practice in rural/small town setting between Blue Ridge and Allegheny mountains
- Low cost of living and general affordability
- Access to local cities such as Blacksburg, Roanoke, and Salem, each with amenities and local recreation, as well as local community atmosphere

ARLINGTON

- Classes held exclusively in the evenings providing flexibility for working professionals (4:00 PM - 6:45 PM and 7:00 PM - 9:45 PM)
- Large city hub encompassing the National Capital Region: Northern Virginia, Washington D.C., and Maryland.
- Access to extensive city amenities including public transportation, museums, parks, greenways, historical sites, and shopping
- Easy access to int'l organizations, US Federal government agencies, national-level associations, Think Tanks, Local and Regional Governments
- Strong job market in national, state, and local government, as well as in the private contractor community
- Access to Arlington-based Virginia Tech programs and offerings
- Access to Capital Area Student Planning Association (CASPA)
- Access to largest geographic concentration of Virginia Tech Alumni
- Access to all online and several on-campus services in Blacksburg.